Mathematica Scandinavica is a peer-reviewed journal in mathematics that has been published regularly since 1953. Mathematica Scandinavica is run on a non-profit basis by the five mathematical societies in Scandinavia. It is the aim of the journal to publish high quality mathematical articles of moderate length.

Mathematica Scandinavica consists of one volume, published as 3 separate issues, with a total of 640 pages. The index is included in the final issue of the volume. The first issue is expected to appear no later than the end of March, and the remaining issues follow at intervals of approximately 4 months.

Articles since 1953 available on the net

Access to articles from the latest 5 years is only possible for subscribers. Access to the electronic version is included in the subscription price. Issues older than 5 years are open to the public.

Subscribers must send their IP numbers or IP-ranges either to their book agents or directly to the journal to get access to the latest 5 years of Mathematica Scandinavica.
